

5. “What was the most interesting thing you learned today?”

If the answer is often “nothing,” it could mean your child isn’t tuned in or doesn’t fully understand what’s being taught.

6. What did you like most about school today?

Your child can go anywhere with this question, and you may learn new things about what your child is thinking and doing.

7. “What was the hardest thing you did today?”

This question lets your child talk about things that were challenging in a good way and, also things that were a struggle.
